

Here is a bona fide extract from a letter recently received by one of us, which will introduce what I may have to say:

"And now tell me something about these prayer cures. I have been seeing mention made of the subject by Kentucky papers, and I want to know what you can say on the subject."

Do you believe that every case in which the sinner and the patient both have faith to believe that the disease can be cured, that it will be? Or do you think that only in certain cases is it efficacious?—cases which present no difference to the medical man from those not cured? Or do you believe that it only operates in diseases which would, in time, be cured by medical treatment, or would yield to the unaided restorative and recuperative powers of nature, only hastening the cure?

Do you find that it operates as you expect? Do you find that enough are cured to justify the belief that a miracle was wrought? Or do you find that many who, to all appearances, have faith as great as those who are apparently miraculously healed, are not healed? Or do you think those who are cured owe it to faith, and those who are not cured, lack the requisite faith?

If all diseases were cured by faith, would not the faithful live forever unless cut off by accident? Or would they live faith, and so fall a prey to disease in old age? Or pay the debt of nature thro' sheer loss of vital energy?

I do not ask these questions with the purpose, as you may think, of ridiculing a belief which I have not faith enough to entertain. I do so because I want to know exactly what you believe, and whether you find sufficient encouragement from actual results to induce you to persevere in this belief. Or, whether you do not recognize in the outcome of this experiment, reason to believe that you have misinterpreted the word of God?

I do not speak as a seceder, but as an earnest inquirer after truth, in which light I beg you will consider me.

I have full sympathy with such perplexities. I should, not very long ago, have pronounced similar questions in perhaps a still more ridiculous way. My present experience and a narrative of the LORD'S dealings in my own case may answer some of them, and give a clue to the solution of others:

About a week ago, as I was reading a little book by Miss Carrie T. Judd, entitled "The Prayer of Faith," (I wish I could read it!) the question came to me from some source: "Why are you reading this book on cures wrought by the power of God through faith, though a pair of spectacles made by a man to repair the wear and tear of time upon your eyes? Must your eyes wear out? Is there no remedy radiant enough to arrest the progress of inevitable failure? Are these words, 'Who healeth all diseases' a mere figure of speech? When your eyes began to fail, did you ever go to the LORD and ask Him to keep them undimmed, as he did for Moses, or did you submit to the inevitable and at once get a pair of spectacles? Have you not faith in the LORD, who has joined by his word, in James V, 14-15, for example? Conscience speedily answered these questions in the negative. Then came the question: "Will the LORD forgive your ignorance and unbelief, and yet restore, making the shadow to go back ten years upon life's dial, in answer to the prayer of faith?"

Then came another question: Will you knock away the human props and lean your whole weight upon the LORD for restoration, and a renewal of youth, as promised in Psalm 103? Here difficulties came trooping to the front thick and fast, but faith had but one answer to one and all, "My grace is sufficient for thee." So there and then I said to myself, my glasses and confidence the whole case of my Heavenly Physician. And there, by His grace, will I leave it, until the experience of the cure I leave to Him, shall be mine. Meanwhile have nothing to do but "hold fast the confession of faith without wavering; for He is faithful who has promised." For awhile I am practically blind, and one must have the experience to appreciate the innumerable annoyances of my present condition. Yet "none of these things move me," so long as I know that the LORD is leading me, and it is a joy to submit to any trial of faith that may bring glory in the end to His dear name. For will it not glorify Him to see to hold Satan in check? Did not He come to "destroy the works of the devil"? And if he is to use me in future in healing diseases of the body as well as in the salvation of the soul, what a joyful testimony I can bear to the afflicted in saying, "Jesus did thus and thus for me." For seeing clearly, as I do, that the falling faith of His followers is not the great reason why Jesus' power is not more glorified in the cure of all "ills that flesh is heir to," and feeling deeply, as I do, the sad reproach of having the "Ides, the halt, the blind," the "sick of divers diseases" laid at our feet unhealed, as though there were no balm Gilead and no physician there; and longing, as I do, to be sent forth by the dear Master with a full commission for soul and body, and to have the "healing of the sick" joined to the "preaching of the gospel everywhere," as in the old time, it seems to me that any amount of self-denial can but cheaply purchase the sweet privilege of being thus used by the Master, and these sharp trials of faith can only be looked upon as signs of a vigorous spiritual manhood that can afford to "endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." Like the fasts and vigils of him who coveted the golden spurs of Knighthood, or the patient self-denial of him who would earn a laurel wreath in the old arena.

"Now these did it for a corruptible; we for an incorruptible crown."

"But suppose this is all a delusion of Satan?" Suppose it is. I am sure the LORD will over rule it, and "out of the eater bring forth meat; out of the strong bring forth sweetness," if the heart be honest though misguided.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOLUME X.—NUMBER 14.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1881.

WHOLE NUMBER 482.

Please Examine the Date on Your Label and if it reads "Forward us Amount due at ONCE."

Description of Jesus.

The following epistle was taken by Napoleon from the public records of Rome, when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was written at the time and on the spot where Jesus Christ commenced his ministry, by Publius Lentulus, the Governor of Judea, to the Senate of Rome—Cesar, Emperor.

"And what if you should fail in being cured?" Alas! why will not some one say, "Suppose you should succeed?" But the current of supposition is all the other way. As when one starts out to be a Christian, "Suppose I should not persevere," &c., &c. But this leads me to say that should unbelief bring failure, or should it turn out to be a mistaken delusion from the first, it will only follow that I am cred, not that the LORD is unfaithful. No principle is involved bringing into dispute any promise of the LORD. It is written, "Believe in the LORD Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." It is not written, "If you will lay aside your glasses I will restore youthful vision." I think I can truly infer this from Scripture, and I am acting now upon this basis, but yet it may be only an inference of a mistaken man of "like passions" with yourself. Let no one attach undue importance to this "experiment," as some would call it. The LORD is not irretrievably committed to restore my eyes or stand before all as false to His word. I certainly think so such thing, though firmly convinced that I have a plain promise to stand upon. And finally, in all this "faith cure," I see clearly that faith begins "as a grain of mustard seed," and by the LORD giving it undying root and vigorous growth, in the exercise of such faith as we now have, it will soon be "chiefest among herbs." If I stood now in the presence of one "born blind," or a dead body, I have no present faith to call forth the promise to heal or raise to life again. But I have faith in minor cases and have already successfully exercised it. And I am sure it is growing and will grow, rapidly or slowly, as I am "faithful in that which is least." One must crawl before walking, and I am a novice in healing the body, as yet. By the LORD'S clear grace, I shall get further on, after which, "If by any means I may save some," is my motto, as it was Paul's. The LORD will see to all the rest, and I will go on trusting Him.

To sum up. As I see at present, I am acting on a curie blanche commission. I am authorized to "preach the gospel to every creature," to "heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out devils," receiving freely, I am to give freely. There is no limit. "All things are possible with God." "All things are possible to him that believeth." "According to FAITH it shall be done," by HIM, who has all power in heaven and on earth.

But Faith has growth. Peter raises the dead at first. Paul works no miracles at the outset. Let any one read of the transition from Saul to Paul, in Acts XIII, and it will throw light on this subject. So, the feeblest believer, if only he will exercise faith fully, the trust he now has, may hope to purchase to himself a good degree and great boldness in the faith." In the cases where I have exercised faith, according to my measure, it has "worked like a charm."

In the case in hand, of trusting for a restoration of lost youthful vigor of sight, I am "stretching myself beyond my measure," as the Scripture hath it; and if so, there may be partial or total failure, or I may in time "work up" to the needed measure, and so get the blessing. God "gives no account" of His methods to any, unless he see fit. I can wait for Him to show me His blessed will, and advance or retreat as He may order. At present, it seems clear to me that I am following His leading. If anything further he shall encourage any among his brethren in the ministry to "follow on to know the LORD" with me, I shall be thankful. I praise the LORD for awaking some of them. To such I would say as having been "found faithful" in some measure: "Be of good cheer: As in the preaching of the gospel, we travel on from the 'novice' stage where we deem it essential to have pulpit cushions to clutch in one agony of attempt to 'do our duty,' on from the fully written discourse to a "skeleton" of "headings;" on to the blessed freedom and sunlight of entire trust in the LORD for utterance." So in the second part of our blessed commission. At first we shall fail and blunder once and again. But we shall "let patience have her perfect work, and we shall be perfect and entire, lacking nothing." We have "need of patience" to be "followers of those who thru' faith and patience have inherited the promises." Oh, the time is so short! It will be but the turning of an hour glass and Jesus will be here to take account as to who among his children have been faithful and to know that each one has "proved by testing." I write these words with a "single eye" to that solemn period, now so near. May the "LORD give us understanding in all things." Ever in Jesus, GEO. O. BARNES.

A Year Without a Summer.

In the year 1816 there was a sharp frost in every month. It was known as "the year without a Summer." The farmers used to refer to it as "eighteen hundred and starve to death." In May ice formed half an inch thick, buds and flowers were frozen and corn killed. Frost, ice and snow were common in June. Almost every green thing was killed, and the fruit was nearly all destroyed. Snow fell to the depth of three inches in New York and Massachusetts, and ten inches in Maine. July was accompanied with frost and ice. On the 5th ice was formed of the thickness of window glass in New York, New England Pennsylvania, and corn was nearly all destroyed in certain sections. In August ice formed half an inch thick. A cold Northern wind prevailed nearly all Summer. Corn was so frozen that a great deal was cut down and dried for fodder. Very little rye was in New England, and scarcely any even in the Middle States. Farmers were obliged to pay $4 or $5 a bushel for corn of 1817, for seed for the next Spring's planting.

The peculiar adaptation of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to so many phases of throat and bronchial disease has rendered this remedy immensely popular. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

A Virginian has been much pained to convince himself that four out of every five murders are committed when the wind is in the East.

Description of Jesus.

The following epistle was taken by Napoleon from the public records of Rome, when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was written at the time and on the spot where Jesus Christ commenced his ministry, by Publius Lentulus, the Governor of Judea, to the Senate of Rome—Cesar, Emperor.

"And what if you should fail in being cured?" Alas! why will not some one say, "Suppose you should succeed?" But the current of supposition is all the other way. As when one starts out to be a Christian, "Suppose I should not persevere," &c., &c. But this leads me to say that should unbelief bring failure, or should it turn out to be a mistaken delusion from the first, it will only follow that I am cred, not that the LORD is unfaithful. No principle is involved bringing into dispute any promise of the LORD. It is written, "Believe in the LORD Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." It is not written, "If you will lay aside your glasses I will restore youthful vision." I think I can truly infer this from Scripture, and I am acting now upon this basis, but yet it may be only an inference of a mistaken man of "like passions" with yourself. Let no one attach undue importance to this "experiment," as some would call it. The LORD is not irretrievably committed to restore my eyes or stand before all as false to His word. I certainly think so such thing, though firmly convinced that I have a plain promise to stand upon. And finally, in all this "faith cure," I see clearly that faith begins "as a grain of mustard seed," and by the LORD giving it undying root and vigorous growth, in the exercise of such faith as we now have, it will soon be "chiefest among herbs." If I stood now in the presence of one "born blind," or a dead body, I have no present faith to call forth the promise to heal or raise to life again. But I have faith in minor cases and have already successfully exercised it. And I am sure it is growing and will grow, rapidly or slowly, as I am "faithful in that which is least." One must crawl before walking, and I am a novice in healing the body, as yet. By the LORD'S clear grace, I shall get further on, after which, "If by any means I may save some," is my motto, as it was Paul's. The LORD will see to all the rest, and I will go on trusting Him.

Pardons Before Conviction.

The Breckinridge News, in an article on Governor Blackburn's abuse of the pardoning power, has this to say about pardons issued prior to conviction. It is simply approbation of the offense of which the recipient stands accused and license for him and others like-minded to repeat it whenever so disposed. It is such license, because in plain words the Governor says to him: "You have violated the law, and you will be condemned and punished if you reach trial. But it pleases me to interpose my authority before the law and to merit punishment. I paralyze the law, and you can go forth free and unpunished." That is the literal meaning of the pardon, whatever may be the language in which it is couched. What is the effect of it? Crime is emboldened, because criminals recognize in the executive a defender and protector. The law is smitten under the fifth rib by the official who has sworn to see it faithfully and impartially executed, and to uphold its majesty and might before all the people. Courts are transformed into species of variety theatres where farces styled trials are performed.

Ida Kelly, of Itasca, Minnesota, sent a note to her lover, Sol Greisner, with whom she had quarrelled, asking him to come on a certain night and elope with her. Sol was elated by the idea of marrying her, partly because he wished to triumph over her parents, who had opposed the match. He was under her window with a ladder at midnight. She came down, dressed as though for a journey, and kissed him. They sat down at a little distance from the house and discussed the question which direction to take. Ida was in Sol's lap, with one arm thrown about his neck, when the disengaged hand she cut him with a razor. Having murdered him, as she supposed, she ran back to her bed; but the wound was not mortal. It is conjectured that she intended his death to be attributed to suicide, as she was careful to retain the letter which had lured him.

WHAT A FARMER FOLKS FOR.

The eccentric LORDES Dow describes in one of his characteristic sermons, the life of the farmer who is owned by his farm, and the progress of the press. It is good enough to deserve a new life once in every ten years. "The average Western farmer toils hard, early and late, often depriving himself of needed rest and sleep—for what? To raise corn. For what? To feed hogs. For what? To get money with which to buy more land. For what? To feed more hogs. For what? To feed more hogs. For what? To buy more land. And what does he want with more land? Why, he wishes to raise more corn—to feed more hogs—to buy more land—to raise more land—and in this circle he moves until the Almighty stops his hoggish proceedings."

A woman at Cape Girardeau, Mo., who had suffered from a husband's neglect, traced him to a bar-room, where he was playing cards with several companions. Setting a colored dish she had in her hands down upon the table, she said, "Presuming, husband, that you were too busy to come home to dinner, I have brought you yours," and departed. With a forced laugh he invited his friends to dine with him, but on removing the cover from the dish found only a slip of paper, on which was written: "I hope you will enjoy your meal; it is the same your family have at home."

Sufferers with the toothache, give this a trial. "A little home-rubbed scraped and laid on the wrist of the side afflicted with, in many cases, give speedy relief. A better way is to place a little scraped horse-radish in the mouth or the tooth and just around the gum. It relieves rheumatic pains in the gums and face also. The mouth may afterwards be rinsed with a little camphorated water, lukewarm."

The wicked flea has invaded the sanctity of woman's boudoir, and when the shades of evening wrap their sable mantle around tired nature, and the curtain is carefully drawn and the key-hole stuffed, then comes the tug of war, or words to that effect. So we have been told.—(Chicago Times.)

The meanest man in the country lives in Missouri. He pleaded in a breach of promise suit that a contract made on Sunday night was not binding.

"Hades and condemnation!" said Mr. Cocking, "this new revision puts me in a bad way."—(New Era.)

Haunted by His Crime.

The following striking example of the state of a murderer's heart, with its ceaseless memory and perpetual self-accusation, brings forcibly to mind the words of Webster: "A vulture is devouring it, and it can ask no human assistance or sympathy." The case is that of Martin Battles, of Charlotte, N. Y., who twenty years ago shot and killed Cornelius Lynch. He was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to one year in the Auburn Penitentiary, and then to be hanged. His case was brought before the Court of Appeals. The Court decided that the act of the Legislature was unconstitutional, and Battles was set at liberty. He enlisted in the Union army, and served through the late war. He then returned, and he was constantly haunted by the presence of the man he had killed, and he was sorry that the sentence of the law had not been carried out. He endeavored to have himself placed on trial again, hoping that he would be re-convicted and hanged. He finally became a maniac, and was placed in the Western Asylum for the insane. He is still an inmate of that institution, and imagines that his victim is always present in his cell for the purpose of mocking and torturing him. He at times throws himself on the floor and begs Lynch to kill him. Although only 40 years of age, his hair is as white as a man of 70. Every day is one of terror to him.—(New York Sun.)

Training Tomatoes.

The season for planting tomatoes is nearly at hand, and I fear that lovers of this delicious fruit do not know how to grow them successfully. When the plants are ready for the garden, make a considerable hill of good compost. Chip manure is excellent, and a quantity of chicken manure is good. After the hill is made, drive a long stake through it. This may be six feet high. Set the plant near it. The training will require attention. The plant will immediately begin to sucker, or throw out side roots, just above each leaf. These must be cut off, and then the plant will run up vigorously. Tie it to the stake, and do not be afraid to use the knife. Keep on cutting each stem that appears in the axil of a leaf, and keep on tying. The first bearing branches come directly from the body of the plant. Remember that this training must be continued as long as the plant bears. Thus trained, the fruit is superior in size, quantity and flavor, beside being less liable to rot or drop off. I have never seen these directions printed. So I send them, hoping it will make some good housewives glad.—(Virginia E. B. in Country Gentleman.)

THE RUSSIAN PRIEST'S WIFE.

There is only one happy woman in Russia. It is the priest's wife; and it is a common mode of expression to say, "as happy as a priest's wife." The reason why she is happy is because her husband's position depends upon her. If she dies he is deposed and becomes a mere layman; his property is taken away from him and distributed, half to his children and half to the government. This dreadful contingency makes the Russian priest careful to get a healthy wife if he can, and makes him take extraordinary good care of her after he has got her. She must never get her feet wet, and she is petted and put in hot blankets. If she has so much as a cold in her head, it is the greatest possible good fortune for a girl to marry a priest—infinite better than to be the wife of a noble.—(Jennie June.)

WHAT A FARMER FOLKS FOR.

The eccentric LORDES Dow describes in one of his characteristic sermons, the life of the farmer who is owned by his farm, and the progress of the press. It is good enough to deserve a new life once in every ten years. "The average Western farmer toils hard, early and late, often depriving himself of needed rest and sleep—for what? To raise corn. For what? To feed hogs. For what? To get money with which to buy more land. For what? To feed more hogs. For what? To buy more land. And what does he want with more land? Why, he wishes to raise more corn—to feed more hogs—to buy more land—to raise more land—and in this circle he moves until the Almighty stops his hoggish proceedings."

A woman at Cape Girardeau, Mo., who had suffered from a husband's neglect, traced him to a bar-room, where he was playing cards with several companions. Setting a colored dish she had in her hands down upon the table, she said, "Presuming, husband, that you were too busy to come home to dinner, I have brought you yours," and departed. With a forced laugh he invited his friends to dine with him, but on removing the cover from the dish found only a slip of paper, on which was written: "I hope you will enjoy your meal; it is the same your family have at home."

Sufferers with the toothache, give this a trial. "A little home-rubbed scraped and laid on the wrist of the side afflicted with, in many cases, give speedy relief. A better way is to place a little scraped horse-radish in the mouth or the tooth and just around the gum. It relieves rheumatic pains in the gums and face also. The mouth may afterwards be rinsed with a little camphorated water, lukewarm."

The wicked flea has invaded the sanctity of woman's boudoir, and when the shades of evening wrap their sable mantle around tired nature, and the curtain is carefully drawn and the key-hole stuffed, then comes the tug of war, or words to that effect. So we have been told.—(Chicago Times.)

The meanest man in the country lives in Missouri. He pleaded in a breach of promise suit that a contract made on Sunday night was not binding.

"Hades and condemnation!" said Mr. Cocking, "this new revision puts me in a bad way."—(New Era.)

The Dentists and Gold.

It is not strange that 15,000 dentists find employment in the United States. Dr. J. N. Farrar, of New York, states in an article published in the Dental Laboratory that not less than half a ton of pure gold, costing about $500,000 is annually packed away in the mouths of Americans, and in addition to this, there is probably four times as much cheap material, such as silver, platinum, etc., used in filling cavities in teeth. He makes the curious and interesting estimate that only 300 years would be required to bury the amount of gold coin now in circulation in the country ($150,000,000) in the graveyards. The magnitude of American dental operations is shown by the statement that about 200,000 artificial or porcelain teeth, mounted on various kinds of plates, are made every year. Dr. Farrar supplements these figures with the important statement, based on statistics compiled with painstaking labor, that out of an average of eighty people of all classes, only one can be found with perfect dental organs. The other seventy-nine require a dentist's care.

A FREE TRANSLATION.—Lawyer Bonham, of the old Cincinnati bar, was an orator and very fond of showing off his classical learning before a jury. In a murder trial, in defending the prisoner, he warned the jury not to allow public opinion, which was against his client, to influence their verdict. "Gentlemen of the jury," he said, in concluding his appeal, "give up, drop entirely all feeling in this important matter, and be like the ancient Roman in his adherence to the truth, who, in its defense, most eloquently declared: 'Amicus Cato, amicus Plato, amicus Cicerō sed major veritas.' ["I am a friend to Cato, a friend to Plato, a friend to Cicero, but a greater friend to truth."]

The next morning the lawyer found himself reported in the newspapers as follows: "Advocate Bonham, the great orator, closed his great speech to the jury by eloquently disclaiming: 'I may trust Cato, I may trust Plato, I may trust Cicero,' said Major Veritas." ["I am a friend to Cato, a friend to Plato, a friend to Cicero, but a greater friend to truth."]

SLEIGH BELLS—HOW MADE.—It has, no doubt, been a mystery to many how the iron ball inside of sleigh bells got there, and it is said to have taken considerable thought on the part of the discoverer before the idea struck him. In making sleigh bells the iron ball is put inside a sand core, just the shape of the inside of the bell. Then a mould is made just the shape of the outside of the bell. The sand core, with the jingle inside, is placed in the mould of the outside, and the melted metal is poured in, which fills up the space between the core and mould. The hot metal burns the core so that it can be shaken out, leaving the ball within the shell. Ball valves, swirl joints, and many other articles are cast in the same manner.

Mrs. Loachman, of New Albany, Ind., felt insulted because Oscar Rosenbaum said she was no lady, and decided to refute his charge by cowhiding him. She armed herself with a heavy whip, managed to encounter her victim in a public place, and laid the lash across his face savagely. He hesitated to strike a woman, and her exploit would have been an entire victory had it not been for her brother, who had been hiding close by to protect her in case of need. He inadvertently exposed himself, and was thrashed by Rosenbaum so thoroughly that he had to be carried to a hospital.

An ingenious method of walking over a garden has recently been patented. It is called the "progressive reform hen promulgator." It consists of an inverted spur which points backward into the ground, which is fastened to the hen. Any given hen, which flies over the fence with intent to scratch up the seeds, is immediately thwarted in her base design, for the spur sticks in the ground at the first effort to scratch and forces the hen to take a step forward; and thus step by step the hen is marched out of the garden.

Frank McDonald and his wife, of Shelbyville, Ind., are respectively 16 and 15 years old. They were married a year ago, and, already tiring of matrimony, have separated and gone back to their parents.

The following advertisement appears in a Canadian paper: "Will the gentleman who stole my melons last Saturday night be generous enough to return a few of the seeds, as they are a choice variety?"

Beer consumption has increased in this country from 1,765,827 barrels, in 1863, to 13,347,112 barrels in 1880. The brewers, at their recent convention, felt very good humored over the increase.

So far as we have gone in the "New Version" we fail to discover that things are made any safer, hereafter, or the way any wider or easier than the old one.—(Richmond Va.) State.

His Satanic Majesty has appointed Col. Robert G. Ingersoll his minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary to the United States.—(Breckinridge News.)

The giraffe has never been known to utter a sound. In this respect it resembles a young lady in a street car when a gentleman gives up his seat to her.

"What is love?" asks an exchange. Love, my friend, is thinking that you and the girl can be an eternal picnic to each other.—(Salem Sunbeam.)

Senator Cocking's law practice is said to be worth $25,000 a year, and he has $300,000 in hard cash. Platt is said to be worth $200,000.

From the Hub.

There is perhaps no topic offered to the public that possesses as much real intrinsic value as the Hop Bitters. Just at this season of the year, when the stomach has an appetite, or the blood needs purifying, the cheapest, and best remedy is Hop Bitters. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure; don't wait until you are prostrated by a disease that may take months for you to recover in.

PROFESSIONAL.

FRANK L. WOLFORD, MATTHEW PEYTON,
F. L. WOLFORD & M. PEYTON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
LIBERTY, KY.

Special attention given to collections. Office over R. T. Pierce's store. (40-117)

THOMAS P. HILL, JR.,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
STANFORD, KY.

Will practice in the Courts of this and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals, office on Lancaster Street. 44-117

JAS. B. DUNLAP,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
DANVILLE, KY.

Will practice in the Courts of Boyle and in the Court of Appeals. I solicit a share of public patronage. Office over Harris, Durham & Dunlap's.

JAMES G. GIVENS,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
LOUISVILLE, - - - KENTUCKY.

Practices in all the Courts. Collections promptly made. 44-117

J. S. & R. W. HOCKER,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
STANFORD, KY.

Office over McAllister & Lytle's Store.

S. S. MYERS,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
STANFORD, KY.

Office with Judge Phillips in the Court-house Square.

T. W. & W. E. VARNON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
STANFORD, KY.

Office in Court Square.

L. E. HUFFMAN,
SURGEON DENTIST,
STANFORD, KY.

Office—South side Main Street, two doors above the Myers Hotel. Pure Nitrous Oxide Gas administered when required. 44-117

NOTICE

I WILL BE IN STANFORD TWO WEEKS of each month, from first Monday, and in Lancaster two weeks of each month, from third Monday. Office in St. Asaph Hotel, over Mattingly & Son's store. [See sign.] 40-117

R. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.

CONFECTIONERY

AND LUNCH HOUSE!

THE CITIZENS OF LINCOLN ARE respectfully informed that I have opened a full line of Confectionery of all kinds in Stanford, next door to McRoberts and Stagg, and in addition, will serve

HOT LUNCHES AT ALL HOURS.
Cakes, Loaf Bread, Pie, &c., always on hand and special orders filled on the shortest notice. 47-117

JOHN T. HIGGINS, J.

J. T. HARRIS,
The Proprietor of the Commercial Hotel,

Has opened a nice
Meat and Provision Store

Just opposite the St. Asaph Hotel, and will keep Vegetables, Oysters, Fish and Fruits,

And will pay cash for all kinds of Country Produce, Hides, Sheep Skins, Furs, &c. Prices reasonable. Give him a call. 40-117

MYERS HOTEL,
STANFORD, KY.

E. H. BURNSIDE, - Prop'r.

This Old and Well-Known
Hotel Still Maintains its High Reputation.

—AND—
Its Proprietor is Determined that it shall be Second to no Country
Hotel in the State in its Fare,
Appointments, or Attention to the Comfort of their Guests.

Baggage will be conveyed to and from the depot free of charge. Special accommodations to Commercial Travelers. The Bar will be always supplied with the choicest brands of Liquors and Cigars. An excellent Library is attached.

ST. ASAPH HOTEL,
STANFORD, KY.

THOS. RICHARDS, Prop'r.

OPENED TO THE PUBLIC FEB. 22nd, 1879

FARE, $2.00 PER DAY.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.

Special Accommodations Afforded Commercial Travelers.

Baggage Transferred Free of Charge.

WALL PAPER!

WALL PAPER!

WALL PAPER!

New Styles just received

McROBERTS &amp; STAGG'S.

F. STUKENBORG &amp; BRO.,

FURNITURE!!

MATTRESSES, CHAIRS,
Parlor Suits, &c.

Nos. 9 and 11 East Pearl Street,
CINCINNATI, O.

YOU WILL SAVE 10 TO 15 PER CENT. ON A bill of goods at our house.

French Dressing Case Sets,
Marble-Top with Large Glass,
At $45, $50, $60, $75 & Upwards.
Bureau Sets, $20, $25, $30 and up.
Parlor Suits, Seven Pieces,
Either in Hair, Cloth or Terry.
At $30, $35, $40, $50 & Upwards.

We warrant all our goods to be made of thorough-seasoned lumber, and to give entire satisfaction. No charge for packing or cartage. All goods delivered to boat or railroad free of charge.</

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Treasurer.....JAMES W. TATE.
 " State Senator.....A. R. CLARKE.
 " Legislature.....W. O. HANSFORD.
 " Sheriff.....J. N. MENEFEE.

OF ALL men of business the average newspaper man is the worst. He avails himself of none of the methods which business men in general use to protect themselves, but in their anxiety for patronage they jump at any offer, and accept of subscription and advertisements right and left, without regard to the responsibility or honesty of the parties. A case in point illustrates the way of doing business: Some time ago an agent for the French Liver Pad Co., of Toledo, O., visited the various towns of Kentucky, and after contracting with druggists to handle their invention, sought the newspaper offices, and in the name of one A. J. Bebout, a so-called advertising agent of the same city, contracted for about half a column of regular and several lines of local advertisements. The very fact that they were doing business in one name and advertising in another, was conclusive proof to us that there was something wrong, but the young man explained that Bebout was a partner and they did it to prevent trouble in keeping books. We took the advertisement, but becoming more suspicious, and receiving a letter of inquiry from Brother Harper, of the Lebanon Standard and Times, as to the solvency of Bebout, we made investigation in Toledo, and found that it was worthy of credit he had not yet shown it. Of course we discontinued the "ad," and wrote to Bebout who offered to pay for the insertions, but has taken particular pains not to do so. We write this to see how many of the one hundred papers in Kentucky which are running the "ad," know what they are doing, or whether they care how much they are duped by Yankee sharpers. We would like for all to speak, even if they have to do so once.

WILLIAM OWENLY HANSFORD, the Democratic nominee to represent Lincoln county in the next Legislature, was born in this county 53 years ago. Until the re-organization of the Democratic party in 1868, he was an old-line Whig, and as such was elected to the Legislature for the term of '69 to '70. During the war he was an intense Union man, and on that account had much influence with the Federal soldiers, whom he kept from mistreating and robbing those of his neighbors who sided with the "Lost Cause." In 1868, when the party lines were drawn so that he had to choose between the Democrats and the Republicans, he chose the former, and has ever since labored and voted with that party. A lawyer by profession, a thoroughly honest and conscientious man in all his dealings, he will, with his Legislative experience, make the county a most excellent Representative, and it should be the pride of every Democrat to swell his majority as great as possible. His position on the questions that must come before the next General Assembly is sound and conservative, and his choice for the Senate is the choice of the people—Hon. James B. Beck.

MORE than a year ago, Capt. A. J. May, a Lexington blood, shot James Ferguson in that city, and although the shooting was unprovoked, the general impression, formed by the results of other trials, was that he would go unpunished. May was thoroughly of this impression himself, but for a rarity in these days of bribery and sentimentalism, a jury was found who not only knew their duty but dared to do it, and May was given four years in the State penitentiary. He will hardly suffer it, though, as there are so many ways to circumvent the laws and justice. A new trial has been applied for, failing to obtain which his counsel will take the case to the Court of Appeals, when, if the decision is not favorable, Gov. Blackburn, the hope and the comfort of all evil-doers, will be appealed to. It is so seldom that a jury of true men can be found that it is hoped that the verdict of this one may be allowed to stand, and make an exception to the rule that no wealthy man, or one with influential connections, can be made to suffer for his crimes in this State.

AS THERE was no opposition to the candidacy of Mr. A. R. Clarke, of Casey, for the Senate, he is, of course, the nominee on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Clarke was born in Grant county, and is about thirty-seven years of age. Acquiring by his own industry a good common school education, he studied law and afterwards moved to Pulaski, where he practiced for a short time, going thence to the green fields of Casey. There he united the noble employment of teaching the young idea how to shoot with his profession until he got a foothold, and at present he enjoys a good practice. He is a sound Democrat and a man of honor, and it behooves the party to see that he is elected. Let no one think that Col. Robert Blair has no show in the race. He has a large following, which can only be overcome by persistent work on the part of the Democracy. But Mr. Clark can and must be elected.

SOME uncharitable newspapers, notably the Sunday Argus, are slurring at Mr. Barnes because his picture will appear in the June number of Strives. They say that it is an effort of his to gain more notoriety, when the fact is that Mr. Barnes knows nothing of the matter. Mr. J. K. Mulkey, of the Strives, conceived the idea of publishing the picture and wrote to us to obtain one for him. We did so without consulting Mr. Barnes, believing that it could not do him any harm, and being satisfied that it would gratify those who had never seen the good evangelist. Mr. Barnes has passed that period when he would have been flattered by such things. He is wholly and solely devoted to the Lord, and does not seek, except in the advancement of His cause, to be paraded before the public.

JEDIE BUTLER, of Louisville, Judge DeHaven, of Shelbyville, and numerous others are mentioned as candidates for the vacant Judgeship of the Court of Appeals. If this session had a chance she would put 'em in for DeHaven.

The people in Virginia set down on Mahone in the recent local elections, and that individual is now in condition to wish that a millstone were about his neck and that he was cast into the sea.

Kentucky was 89 years old Tuesday.

How HAVE the mighty fallen? Three weeks ago, while occupying the position of U. S. Senator from the great State of New York, Conkling, who had been used to having things his own way, and felt as if he were holding up the whole world by its tail, flew into a passion because the President refused to knuckle to him, and not only resigned his seat himself but forced his people, Platt, to do likewise. No thought other than that he would be immediately re-elected by the Legislature of New York, then in session, seemed to enter his head, and he bumbled up his traps and, with his little man, Platt, at his heels, strook out for Albany. His first effort was to get the members into a caucus, but they refused to be dictated to and Conkling suffered his first defeat. Matters then assuming somewhat of a torrid shape, an adjournment of the Legislature till Tuesday last was effected. Shorn of his greatness and humiliated by defeat, Conkling returned to New York City, where he spent the interim with his friends devising ways and means, returning to Albany on Monday. Tuesday at 12 the balloting commenced, the two branches of the body acting separately, when Conk got but 26 votes in the House and 9 in the Senate—35 in all. Considering that it takes 81 to elect, this was very humiliating to the Crested Jayhawk, and unless the Democratic interference or a mighty change comes over the spirit of the dreams of the "Half-Breeds," (as those Republicans are called who oppose Conk), caused by the gingle of money in their ears, it is pretty safe to foretell that the ex-Senator will not be his own successor. But what of Platt? He fares even worse than his boss, receiving but 29 votes in all. Wednesday, a joint ballot was taken, with the same result. The friends of the administration are jubilant and confident that Conkling will be left; but his followers present a cheerful front, and say that he will yet come out victor, and that he is only waiting to make the surprise more astonishing. The general opinion seems to be against him, however, and the impression prevails that he will be the one to experience the surprise—that is, he will wake up one of these bright Summer mornings to find himself deposed politically than he would have been had G. W. Sprague's shot-gun gone off when he chased him from Narragansett Pier.

The most contemptible man in the United States to-day is Vice-President Arthur, the cur whom Conkling took by the tail and swung into the National Congress at Chicago. He over all he has and is to Conkling, but some respect for decency ought to prevent him from descending to the low level of a bummer, especially when the dirty work he engages in is against the President, with whom he was elected. But, what better could be expected of a man whom Hayes and Sherman kicked out of office because of the corrupt manner in which he conducted that office?

SENATOR MORGAN, of Alabama, in a letter to Capt. Morgan, of Lexington, expresses himself as follows in regard to party: "But aside from such considerations, which I never ignore, Beck is, in fact, the most useful man on our side of the Senate." In our present condition he seems to me to be indispensable. It would be a calamity to the Democratic party, and above all to the South, to lose him from the Senate."

HARPER'S Weekly, which has always opposed the impious dictation of ex-Senator Conkling, and which especially opposed his effort to thrust Grant on the country for a third term, contains a picture of the Crested Jayhawk in its last issue, in which it depicts him as a runaway sheep with his tail between his legs, and tail bearing the name of Platt. It is pretty severe on the seceders.

THE reason assigned by scores of Democrats for their failure to vote in the primary election is that they did not wish to take any part in a transaction which might bind them in honor to vote for Bobbitt. But such men did not consider that if 144 more Democrats had followed their example Bobbitt would now be the nominee.

FOLLOWING the modest example of the Danville Tribune, Ditto publishes a picture of himself and resolutions accompanying of a complimentary nature.—[Post. The funny part is that the picture Ditto publishes is the old cut used to show how a man looks "before taking" a king-cure-all medicine.

THE sage of the Breckinridge News struck a center shot when he fired off the following: "Whenever you scratch the back of an 'indecent Democratic' candidate you tickle a disguised Republican."

THE President of the Press Association of Kentucky, Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, has decided to postpone the annual meeting until the Fall. For our part, we hope it will be indefinitely postponed.

HENRY M. STANTON, of the Yemassee, will celebrate his silver wedding to-morrow, when he will be able to show his friends a child for each year of his wedded life.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

Judge M. H. Cofer held a policy for $4,000 in the National Mutual Benefit Association.

Jessamine county has bought 218 acres of land for $8,600, on which to build a poor-house.

Col. John D. Fogle has been unanimously nominated for the Senate in the 15th District.

Wm. H. Salisbury, who claims to be a nephew of General Ben F. Butler, is to be hanged at Denver, Col., June 17th.

Conkling is reported as having said he would rather see a Democrat elected to the Senate from New York than a Garfield Republican.

In the penitentiary, John Graham did not like to work in the hemp department, and gave a negro boy 30 cents to chop his hand off. He did it.

Two more officials engaged in the Star-route scandal have been ordered down and out—Megraw, 6th Auditor of the Treasury, and Lilly, his deputy.

James L. McClure, founder of the Kentucky Masonic Insurance Company and a prominent citizen of Bowling Green for many years, died at his home in that city Thursday, in his 60th year.

A spirited and fastidious Ottawa girl declined to be married, though the guests were assembled and the bridegroom waiting, because the train of her dress did not hang properly. Expatriation was in vain. She said that she had put a great amount of thought and money into the garment, and it would be a life-long sorrow to her if she were it when conscious that it was not a success. The wedding was postponed a week.

 The public debt less money in the Treasury is $1,502,921,971.
 Marshal Dudley, of Indiana, is to succeed Bently as Commissioner of Pensions.
 A negro woman killed her paramour with a washboard in Lexington, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Lincoln, wife of the President, is steadily failing, and her physicians think she may not survive many days.

A. C. Quisenberry, late of the Winchester Star, has become editor of the Lexington Transcript. The Star is for sale.

The Macon & Brunswick Railroad Co. will let, on June 15th, 100 miles of road, being the extension from Macon to Atlanta, Ga.

Thos. R. Home, of Madison, died from the effects of poison Monday, apparently taken in his food. How it got there, though, is a mystery.

The L. & N. R. R. has added the Georgia Road lease to its combination and a controlling interest in the Savannah, Port Royal and Charleston Road.

Hon. Francis Kernan and John C. Jacobs have been nominated by the Democrats of the New York Legislature to take the places of Conkling and Platt.

The Michigan Senate has passed a bill making it a crime, punishable by a fine of $1,000 and a year in jail, to publish accounts of murders, executions, seductions, &c.

You can go to St. Louis and return for the next few days for $7, and on July 7th an excursion will leave Louisville for San Francisco at $100 for the round-trip, including sleepers.

During the last fifteen years of slavery the South raised 46,675,591 bales of cotton. During the first fifteen years under freedom, that is, from 1865 up to 1880, the number of bales produced was 56,438,335.

Silver dollars are becoming a drug in circulation. For several months there have been more returned to the Treasury than taken out.

Conk took time to send the following to Malone at Richmond: "Your efforts for the true advancement of the South, and to make elections real and fair has my whole heart and deserves the co-operation of Republicans everywhere."

Miss Sarah Bernhardt arrived at Harve on Monday, May 16, from the United States. A French newspaper states that the whole city was on foot, and more than 30,000 people lined the pier and the streets leading to her house.

The Louisville and New Albany & St. Louis Railroad advertises for bids, to close June 9th, for the graduation, masonry, tunneling and trestle works on sections 40 to 92, inclusive, through Crawford, Dubois and Pike counties, Indiana.

A Chattanooga biller exploded and killed a man in a hotel dining room, and a nine-pound piece of iron, and hurling another piece weighing two hundred pounds through two cars loaded with grain and knocking down the corner of a house.

The total receipts of the Government from Internal Revenue for the fiscal year up to to-day are $121,559,898.25. The Commissioner thinks there is no doubt but that the receipts will reach by the close of the fiscal year the sum of $133,000,000.

Stephen W. Dorsey, one of the Star-route swindlers, knowing that there is no chance of a failure of his indictment and conviction, except in death, has taken his bed and refuses to rise, although there is no physical disorder discoverable in him.

The Readjusters of Virginia held a convention at Richmond yesterday to nominate candidates for Governor, Lt. Governor and Attorney General. There were five candidates for Governor, of whom Wm. E. Cameron, of Pittsylvania.

In Cincinnati a reception was given to Judge and Mrs. Stanley Matthews by Washington McLean, of the Enquirer, at his elegant mansion. Among the gentlemen present were Mr. Henry Watterson, Senator Beck, ex-Governor Stevenson and Mr. John Stevenson.

Dr. Rodman, Superintendent of the Western Lunatic Asylum, at Hopkinsville, returned to the State Treasury $22,000, the difference between the amount allowed by the State for the keeping of each inmate and the actual amount it had cost him to run the Asylum.

John Grisco, of the Chicago faster, after seventy-two hours of fasting, showed a loss of eleven pounds. He appears to be in a healthy normal condition, plays games, visits the theaters, and when he feels the need of stimulation takes a leisurely walk. He says he can go forty-five days.

The London Times says: "The open rupture between President Garfield's administration and Mr. Conkling, lately Senator for the State of New York, and the most powerful politician in the Republican party, outside the Cabinet, is of no ill omen for the tranquility of the United States."

Volney Hall was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, A. Odor, at Cynthiana, Ky., Tuesday, who crept up behind him and fired without giving his victim the least warning. The only reason assigned for the act by Odor is that his mother was kept crazy all the time for fear Hall would kill him.

The Richmond Register announces that Dr. L. H. Blanton, Chancellor of Central University, has secured $40,000 in subscriptions to the endowment fund of the University. This amount has been subscribed entirely by persons outside of Madison county, and $35,000 of the whole has been given by twenty-two individuals.

CASEY COUNTY.

Middleburg.

Corn was planted late, and has come up very badly. Some farmers have planted their entire crops over again.

Mr. Thomas Elliott, who recently purchased the farm of Mr. W. T. Coulter, had the misfortune to get his horse burned down on the 27th inst.

Capt. J. R. Hindman and Mr. C. M. Salter, two attorneys of Columbia, were here on business a few days ago.—Rev. A. B. Cabaniss, associate editor of the Western Democrat, was here last week in the interest of his paper.—Mrs. Jasper's school closed on Friday last.

On last Monday morning Mr. James C. Smith, of Lincoln, and Harlan Goode, of Casey, met in Middleburg, and Smith drew a pistol on Goode, collared him and led him off a few steps, and intended to shoot him through the head, but the ball glanced off simply passing under the skin. Smith thought he had killed him, but I understand, has left the country. Cause of difficulty, slander.

The exhibition and commencement exercises of Middleburg Seminary will occur on the 17th inst. We are promised a nice and pleasant entertainment. An admission fee will be charged, in order to raise funds toward the completion of the house. Let every one come and give all the encouragement to the enterprise they possibly can. Prof. Waters has labored very earnestly in his school, but we are sorry to say has not been as liberally patronized as he should have been. We trust he will be re-employed and better patronized in future.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.

The Danville Fair will commence July 26th and continue four days.

A very light vote was polled at the primary election Saturday—57 votes and all for Clarke.

Sorrow left the soul of the farmer on Wednesday morn, as he saw the rain coming beautifully down.

Wool 25c to 25c.—The growing wheat 80c to 85c. Chas. H. Lucas has bought about 500 acres at that price.

The Democrats of Boyle will meet in Mass Convention at the Court-House in Danville, Monday, June 20th, to select a candidate for the Legislature.

The young men are making preparations for a Grand Ball Commencement week—Wednesday night, June 15th. Currier's Band will be in attendance.

The proving of things not seen, as the Revised Testament has it, John Lay, for carrying concealed weapons, was held to answer on $25 bail, on Monday. The fine, upon conviction, could not possibly be less.

Georgia Ann Cooper, colored, (see Bailey) known about Hustonville, is in jail at Danville, charged with stealing a black velvet dress from a delegate to the Colored Christian Convention in this place last week.

Baccalaureate Sermon, to the Bell Seminary graduating class, by R. A. Crenshaw, of Versailles, at the Christian Church on Sunday evening next at 8 o'clock.—To the Centre College Seniors, by Dr. Martin, at 2nd Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, 12th inst.

Rev. James J. Lucas, for more than ten years a missionary to India, is now visiting his family in this city, his former home. He preached at the 1st Presbyterian Church on last Sunday night and gave some account of his labors in the heathen land. He will preach at the 2nd Church next Sunday morning, and has made up his mind he has got to strike something around here and he has been hanging away, above and below and all around, for two or three days. A blue streak of him ran up right Main street last Tuesday evening—and you know scatter! The boys are studiously avoiding attractive girls with hair pins.

There was an annual meeting of the Boyle County Bible Society at 1st Presbyterian Church, this city, on last Sunday morning. For the ensuing year, Hon. M. J. Durham was chosen President; the various pastors of churches in Danville, Vice-Presidents; Joe S. Linney, Secretary, and G. E. Wiseman, Treasurer. Amount of collection, $63.50.

The Bell Seminary Commencement Exercises will be conducted on Wednesday night, June 28th, at 8 o'clock at the 1st Presbyterian Church, this city. The sweet girl graduates are Misses Sallie Engelman, Juliet Harlan, Nannie Stodghill and Nannie Lillard, of Danville; Miss Lillie Pettus, of Somerset; Miss Nannie Troutman, Lexington, and Miss Mary Lackland, of St. Louis.

The graves of the Confederate soldiers in our cemetery were decorated on Friday evening last by the Ladies' Memorial Association. The large crowd that had assembled around the graves was addressed by Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge. The address was chaste, eloquent and appropriate.

On Monday afternoon the graves of the Federal dead were decorated and the flag of their country floated over them. Gen. S. S. Fry delivered a manuscript speech, Col. Bradley failing to appear. After the address the company sang, "My Country, 'tis of thee, &c."

Frank O. Cropper, of St. Louis is in Danville.—Robert Evans, Sam and Frank Cheek, and Samuel G. Boyle have returned to Danville from Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore, where they have been pursuing their studies for the past year.—Miss Sue Belle Fible has returned from school in Virginia and is now in Danville.—Mr. George B. Flece, formerly of Danville, now of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting his brother, J. W. Flece in this city. The presence of Mr. Flece here reminds his friends of an incident that occurred here in his boyhood days. There is, however, some diversity of opinion as to whether the "subject of this sketch" should be George or his brother John—boys all agree. It is customary at all circus exhibitions in our town for the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute to be admitted free. One circus day as the Deaf Mute procession was filing into the tent George (or perhaps John) then quite a small boy, conceived a brilliant idea—it has been well-established that the mind of the small boy is capable of such conception in an emergency. He seized the arm of a companion and they fell into line. Says the showman: "Hello! are you a dummy, too?" "Yes, sir." That showman was one of those men who believe that merit should always be rewarded. He doubted whether that any mute who had made such wonderful progress as to be able to both hear and talk, was certainly a genius—and might, perchance be overlooked—and passed him in free.

PULASKI COUNTY.

Nomerset.

The new-gathered is afflicted with that awful disease known as laziness, and hence his items are few.

An attempt was made last night to wreck the night express at Gover's Switch, just below here. A tie was fastened between the rails in such a position that the train running at a high rate of speed would be wrecked, and it was running very slow, no damage was done except to the engine and the train.

The graves at Logan's Cross-roads were decorated yesterday. The decoration was with flags, two being placed on each grave. Music was furnished by the ladies of this place on an organ furnished through the courtesy of Mr. P. H. Talmadge, of the house of Baldwin & Co. The orations were delivered by John J. Paul, T. Z. Morrow, John S. May, L. D. Parker and W. A. Morrow, of Somerset.

James Mulaney, who shot Bill Durham, was tried last week. To the surprise of all who heard the testimony, the bond was fixed at $1,000. The case, as detailed by the witnesses except two, was one of justifiable homicide. Those two were Sam Durham and Mrs. Wilson, a regular old villain. The latter afforded much amusement. She was very smart at first answering with wonderful promptness. The lawyers let her alone, and she was soon involved in a perfect labyrinth of contradictions.

WATKINS COUNTY.

Monticello.

Oats, meadows and potato crops are being damaged by the protracted dry weather. Farmers are getting the growing corn crop in good condition.

Miss McKee and Sons are receiving orders at their mill to furnish flour to different points along the Cincinnati Southern Railroad in Tennessee.

A spirited contest is being had for school trustees in the Coffey Valley district. Misses Sophronia Oatts and Lucy Jones, two very popular young ladies, are rival aspirants for the position of teacher there.

Capt. L. J. Stephenson informs me that he has collected some 250 fine walnut logs on Sinking, and will begin cutting them into lumber as soon as his mill arrives. He and Mr. R. Burnett have secured a large amount of walnut lumber that will be prepared for market during the Summer and Fall.

Married, on the 28th inst., at the church in Monticello, Ky., by Elder J. J. Shearer, Mr. B. F. Oatts, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Mary McConnelly, of this county. In honor of the above marriage an immense company of invited guests were royally entertained at the residence of Capt. J. D. Oatts on the day after the wedding.

Machinery has arrived and derricks have been erected preparatory to sinking a well for oil near the celebrated oil springs on Harman's Creek. A Pennsylvania company has leased a large territory in that region, and seem confident that they will find oil in paying quantities there. Another company of Pennsylvania men are operating at the old well on Otter Creek. A well was bored there in 1866 that yielded immense quantities of a superior quality of lubricating oil.

Among the distinguished visitors to our town the past week we notice: Mr. Wm. Burnett, of Cincinnati, O.; Joseph Rosenfeld, of Midway, Ky.; Mr. Joseph Win, of Seely Hill, Ky.; Chas. Hilder and Mr. Tuck, of Louisville, Ky.; John T. Wilhite, of Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. Bettie B. Jones, of Kismet, Tenn.; at Dr. J. B. S. Friebe's, receiving medical treatment.

Mr. A. S. Jones, of Lincoln county is here at present.—Mrs. Bettie Coffey and Mrs. Willie Gragg are both confined to their rooms by ill-health.—Miss Allie Shearer is getting well.—Miss Canada Cooper is sick.

Henry S. Tuttle, Jr., the polite assistant pharmacist in the postoffice drug-store, has been vacillating in mind for the past ten days whether or not to become a candidate for the Legislature. Some days he declares very emphatically that he is running, and next day he notifies his friends that he is "off the track." The trouble with him seems to be in the arrangement of a platform that will secure the votes of both parties. He is a stalwart "Rad." in politics, but is anxious to receive the support of the Democracy, and as there is some little discrepancy in the tenets of the two parties, he has heretofore been bothered to contrive a set of principles that will harmonize the conflicting elements. And besides, he says the boys insist on his "settling 'em up" a little too often so early in the season.

Mt. Vernon Department.

SAM. M. BURDETT, Editor.

The following marriage license have been issued since last report: Patrick McFerran to Martha Lamb; Jas. C. Singleton to Margaret Mullins.

Judge John M. Fish, Capt. R. L. Myers and Mr. J. C. P. Myers, are the supervisors of the tax books for this year. They are engaged in their duties this week.

The many friends in this county of Capt. B. F. Holman, of Manchester, will be glad to learn that his attendance at Mr. Barnes' meeting now in progress at that place has resulted in his confessing the Savior.

The last days of May were as hot as any we usually see in August. The nights, however, have so far been very pleasant, affording delightful opportunity for refreshing sleep.

Through the exertions of the ladies, a new carpet has been placed on the floor of the Church. Enough money has been subscribed to give the exterior of the building a dressing of paint, of which it has long stood in need.

Mr. R. M. Mouser, wife and child have rooms at Mr. James Houk's, and will spend the Summer with us. Mr. Mouser is agent for Hike's Nurseries, Dayton, O., of whose fruits he has already sold considerable in this county.

DIED.—On the 24th ult., Mrs. Catherine West, relict of the late Peter H. West, aged 75 years. She was born in Virginia and lived there until her removal to this county forty years ago. She was a member of the Methodist Church and a most excellent lady.

A fine rain fell in this county Wednesday afternoon and night. It did not come any too soon, as crops were needing it. The rain appears to have been general in this section. The farmers who are always predicting a famine, will cease their croaking now for a while.

Every Democrat in the county should attend and vote at the Senatorial primary election of Saturday week, the 11th inst. Let there be a general rally all along the line. The contest is a friendly one, and Rockcastle's voice in the naming of our next Senator should ring out bold and clear.

ABOUT PEOPLE.—Mr. C. S. Nield is back from Kansas. He and his wife are at Pine Hill, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Crooke.—Miss. William and Moses Rollins, of Kokomo, Ind., are visiting relatives in this county.—Prof. A. G. Lovell is in bed, suffering from an attack of the fever.—Mr. and Mrs. James T. Adams and family, of Georgia, are visiting the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller.

Mr. Henry W. Watson, familiarly known as "Jack" Watson, a sprightly young man from Mitchellburg, Ky., was here last week on business.—Mr. E. S. Jones and family, of Louisville, are visiting at Mr. J. J. Williams'.

Mr. W. S. Young, of House's Store, Laurel county, is announced as a candidate to represent this Legislative district in the Lower House of the next General Assembly. Persons here who know Mr. Young say he is a good man, an unflinching Democrat, and, consequently, excellent material. He has not become a candidate for the mere sake of being a candidate, but goes into the fight with a determination to win. The Democrats of this county will stand by him till the sun goes down.

Last Thursday night, Charles Crawford, a young negro who had been working on the railroad in Laurel county, but was returning to Madison, entered the house of Stephen Cummins, near Brodhead, in the absence of the proprietor, and feloniously took and carried away sundry articles, to-wit: Two coats, one pair pants, a pair of boots, two silk handkerchiefs, and two pocket-books, one of which contained a twenty-five cent piece, in current coin of the realm. After leaving the house, Charles proceeded to throw off the rags which then enveloped his young frame, and to attire himself in the clothing which he had recently appropriated. The transformation being complete, he went on his way rejoicing. At Gum Sulphur, however, he was overhauled and captured by some parties who had gone in pursuit after the discovery of the theft. He was speedily shown of his greatness, and on Saturday was carried before Esquires Frith and Tharp to answer the charge of grand larceny. He waived an examination and was held in a bond of $100 to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. In default of executing a bond, he was sent to jail. He says his home is at Berea, Ky. It is quite likely that he will be called on to take up a temporary residence in Frankfort before an opportunity is afforded him to revisit the haunts of his childhood.

Correspondence Mt. Vernon Department.—BRODHEAD.—Mess. Albright Bros. are preparing to erect a stove bucker.—Eld. W. T. Yree will preach in the Baptist Church at this place next Sunday at 11 o'clock. A good rain fell Wednesday.—There is not a loafer in this little village. Every man has something to keep him engaged, and business is booming.—About 50 cars of lumber per month are shipped from this station. It realizes a $75 per car and is, therefore, a considerable source of revenue.—Miss Ellen Frith, Brodhead's little beauty, is spending a few days with her brother, R. H. Frith, at Gum Sulphur. S. C. Perkins, who has been visiting his mother in Pulaski county, has returned. Mrs. S. J. Watts is very sick. J. G. Frith is in Laurel county this week. R. T. Hemphill is convalescing. Mr. S. P. Owens, an energetic agent is here making sales and deliveries of the Singer Sewing Machines. C. B. Albright has a dry goods and grocery store at John Melvin's saw-mill, three miles from town.

Mt. Vernon Advertisements.

FOR SALE!

TWO NO. 1 COPPER STILLS AND 50 TUBS, with good Worms, Flakes and all necessary appliances. A bargain for somebody. Address: W. H. ALBRIGHT, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

J. W. BROWN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Practices in all the Courts. Office South side Main street. (41-17)

ISAAC A. STEWART, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Practices in the Courts of Rockcastle and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Court-House yard. (41-17)

SAM M. BURDETT, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Practices in the Courts of

LOCAL NOTICES.

FISHING TACKLE AT McRoberts & Stagg's.
A CHEAP LINE of Refrigerators at Owsley and Higgins.

MADAME DEMOREST'S Patterns for sale at McRoberts & Stagg's.

SALT. Line and cement constantly on hand at Owsley & Higgins.

For that Cough use White Pine Syrup, prepared by McRoberts & Stagg.

Go to Owsley & Higgins for Saddle's Grain Cakes, Grass Seeds, &c.

For medicinal purposes buy a bottle of 10-year-old Whisky from McRoberts & Stagg.

New line of Water Coolers and Ice Cream Freezers just received at Owsley & Higgins.

SODA WATER dispensed from the New Fountain of McRoberts & Stagg is the finest ever made.

The Ready-mixed Paints sold by McRoberts & Stagg are the best sold and are guaranteed in every particular.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker Mouth and Head Ache. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal injector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge. Price 50 cts. Sold by Chenault & Penny.

ANSWER THIS QUESTION. Why do so many people who are around us seem to prefer to suffer and be made miserable by Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Coming up of the Food, Yellow Skin, when for 75 cents we will sell them Shilo's Vitalizer, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by Chenault & Penny.

READ what J. C. Smallwood, of Pine Hill, says of White's Cough White Vermifuge. "It is the best worm medicine that has ever been used. I have been using it for two years and have never known it to fail in one single instance. I recommend it to all who need anything of the kind." Sold by J. W. Goff, of Pine Hill, and by merchants generally.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE. This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold. It does in a remarkably short time the worst cases of Cough, Croup, and Bronchitis, while it wonderfully succeeds in the cure of Consumption in its early stages. It is a first-class medicine in a guarantee, a first which no other medicine can stand. If you have a Cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10 cts. 50 cts. and $1. If your lungs are sore, Chest or Back Lame, use Shilo's Porous Plaster. Sold by Chenault & Penny.

PERSONAL.

PAID. W. T. KNOTT, of Lebanon, was in town yesterday.

MISS J. W. ALCOY and Miss ANNA GIGGIE have gone to Louisville.

MISS RALPH BROADBENT, of Missouri, is visiting Mrs. M. E. DOWNS.

ONE of the due Capt. George Mollins, freight conductor, for special favors.

MISS PATTIE BRADLEY has finished her term in grammar and returned home.

MR. GEORGE LEE and his children, of Waco, Texas, are visiting her father, Mr. Sewel W. GIBBS.

MISS MINNIE CROW and Gable Gable called yesterday and made an inspection of the "art preservative."

MR. JAMES PAXTON sent us a basket of strawberries this week as big as a hen's egg. They took the blue ribbon for a large quantity.

P. M. McDERMOTT, Esq., of the S. Revenue Department, was here a few days ago. His station for the next two months will be at Frankfort.

MISS SARAH PAXTON has returned from Wayne Institute, Lexington, to spend the vacation. We notice her name among those who won prizes.

AMONG the twenty-five guests now enjoying themselves at that refreshing resort, Cumberland Falls, are Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Jones and Major and Mrs. Jones, of this county.

In the list of graduates at Hamilton College, Lexington, the names of Misses Gaudin Gilman, Hamilton, Ella and Eugenia Peyton and Mollie Owsen, of Hustonville, appear.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SPRING chickens are scarce at $2.50 per dozen.

Just received a fresh supply of furniture. J. N. Craig.

WANTED. 100,000 pounds of wool, for which we will pay the highest market price. Hale & Nunnally.

Call and see the Champion Twine Binder at Geo. D. Wearen's.

All kinds of plants, Tomatoes, Cabbage, Potatoes, &c., for sale at Mattingly & Son's.

A nice lot of sample Refrigerators, Coolers and Cream Freezers at George D. Wearen's.

Three hundred pounds of French and other Fine Candies just received at B. Mattingly & Son's.

A number of guests have already arrived at Crab Orchard Springs, and the season promises to be unusually pleasant and profitable.

WILLIAM WILKINSON, of Turnersville, a middle-aged son of a Senegambian, was fined $50 and sentenced to twenty-five days in jail for a breach of the peace.

FREIGHT TRAINS. Two freights each way have been put on. Going North they pass at 8:10 A. M. and 3 P. M.; going South, at 12:10 P. M. and 4:50 P. M. Passengers are carried on them.

FOOT CUT OFF. A man named Oaks, who was employed at J. E. Williams' saw-mill, had his foot cut off by the saw several days ago, which was going with such force as to throw the member to the top of the shed. Oaks is a poor man, with several children, and his misfortune is therefore the more serious. Dr. A. Jackson has the case in charge.

PICTURES. Mr. E. H. Fox, the excellent photographer of Danville, was up a few days ago to take a picture of Pink Cottage, for the Southern cartoon paper, Stones, and succeeded in getting a number of very fine negatives. As soon as possible he will put copies of them on sale, cabinet size, at the low price of 25 cents each. Stones will be out to-morrow, and can be gotten at McRoberts & Stagg's, Mr. Barnes, Miss Marie, and the Cottage, with an entertaining sketch of them, can be found in it.

THE PRIMARY. We do not suppose there ever was an election of any kind in which so little interest was taken as in the Primary of Saturday last. Only 523 votes were cast—Hansford receiving 333 and Bobbitt 190—Hansford's majority 143. Mr. A. R. Clark, candidate for State Senate, received 443 votes, and J. N. Menifree, for Sheriff, 492. The vote in detail, so far as the Legislative race is concerned, is as follows: Stanford—Hansford 155, Bobbitt 50, Hustonville 10, 70, E. S. Turnersville 10, 19, E. S. Crab Orchard 11, 60, B. 96, Walnut Flat 3, 8, 10; Waynesburg—H. 21, B. 27. No poll was opened at Highland as only one man, Mr. John Young, presented himself.

AN election for School Trustees will be held to-morrow.

THE Turnersville Sunday School will enjoy a picnic to-morrow.

OUR Shelby City correspondent, Mr. W. E. Griggs, had his hand severely crushed in the cogs of his bolting machine the other day.

SAKE.—Tom Ferrell shot a snake near Hall's Gap the other day which was ornamented with nine rattles and a button. This makes two he has shot this season.

A new postoffice named Mirror has been established in this county, and Mr. Nelson Petrey has opened the ball by ordering a copy of THE INTERIOR JOURNAL to be sent to him there.

THE negroes, Andy Yates and Reuben Walker, an account of whose fight we gave last week, were tried and fined $75 each, unable to pay which they are now laboring on Court Square.

ANYTHING is the shoe and Boot-Making line that can be done at any other shop furnished by me at the lowest rates. You have only to make known your wants to be suited. Give me a trial. L. A. Wilson.

HAND SHOT OFF.—John Miller, son of Mr. Will Craig, while out hunting Saturday evening, shot himself in the hand so severely that it had to be amputated.

DR. BROADBENT and Peyton performed the operation, and he is now getting on finely, with the exception of his knee, which was also wounded, and which still has two shots under the cap. Parents should be very cautious about allowing children to handle firearms, and they will be in this section for a short time at least.

THE DIFFERENCE.—A few days ago a couple of limbs of the law, who were defending two negroes for fighting, fell out and fit themselves, in the sacred walls of the Court-House. They were parted, but afterwards got together and clawed each other again. They were brought before Judge Brown who fined them one cent and costs, assessing the costs at a bucket of lemonade. A day or so afterwards Mr. Hackley was brought up for fighting James Blackley. He confessed his sin and "Squire Carson" very justly fined him $5 and costs, the latter amounting to some $6 more. The difference between the two decisions is that in one case the law was brought into contempt by being made a farce, and in the other that it was properly administered. But why the difference, is the question?

COMMENCEMENT.—Next Sunday the Commencement Exercises will be inaugurated by a sermon by the Rev. L. B. Woolfolk in the Court-House; Wednesday night in the Opera House the Annual Concert will be given, and Thursday night the regular Commencement Exercises. Miss Kate White, of this county, has been chosen as Salutatorian, and Miss Jennie Broadbent, of Madison, who will take the highest honors of the School, as Valedictorian. Rev. Allen Tupper, an eloquent young Baptist minister, of Harrodsburg, will deliver the Annual Address. These exercises will be held in the Opera House, and in order to prevent confusion and keep away those who take no interest in educational affairs but merely attend to disturb the proceedings, it has been decided to issue tickets admitting only those of known good behavior. These tickets can be secured from the Principal, Mrs. S. C. Trueheart, and at the drug stores without charge, and no one will be admitted unless he can show the necessary pasteboard.

PINK COTTAGE NOTES.—Mr. John Proctor, from Anderson county, who has been paralyzed from his waist down for nine years, is staying at the Faith Cure. He professed religion at one of the prayer meetings there, and on Friday last was baptized by immersion. Rev. W. T. Tyree performing the ordinance. Several of the patients left this week, greatly improved spiritually if not physically. J. M. Swormstedt, of Cincinnati, lectured at the Cottage Sunday afternoon to a good audience. He is a firm believer in the Cure, as well as in the theory that the second coming of Christ is near at hand. On this latter subject he has written a book in support of his views, which is said to be a very fine production. Mrs. Midkiff is a most remarkable woman. She is scarcely ever still, and never so happy as when ministering to her household of suffering people. It is a real pleasure to visit the Cottage. There are no long faces there, nor any of the affected solemnity that one could imagine might be found at such a place. Colonel Hill (the one he talked with Mr. Derringer, of Richmond, who has been attending the Cure, to ask restoration to health from that terrible disease, consumption, with which she was sorely afflicted, and she told him that she had been entirely cured. Her cough had ceased, her breath, which had been very short, had resumed its normal state, and she felt as well as she ever did. The Colonel suggested that perhaps she might be mistaken, but she clung to the belief that she was restored, and that the Lord had prompted her to proclaim it aloud. She has returned to her home.

HORSE THIEF CAPTURED.—Week before last Mr. R. Gentry, Jr., had a horse stolen from a hitching post near the jail here, and last week W. S. Spoonmore suffered a similar loss from his farm near there. They both made strenuous efforts to regain their property but without avail, until they got enough information to direct their suspicions against Joe Hughes, and they then set about to find his whereabouts. They traced him and their horses to Lawrenceburg where they found that he had sold Gentry's horse to a Mr. White for $75 and Spoonmore's to Mr. James Witherspoon for $85. Hughes had, however, gotten out of the way, but Mr. Gentry was determined to get him also, so with Mr. George C. Colson, County Attorney of Anderson, he began the search which was, after some difficulty, rewarded. They found him Monday hiding behind a rock in a thicket, about 1 1/2 miles from town, and when ordered to get up and follow them, he did so without further ceremony. Sixty dollars of the money was found on his person, the remaining $100 having been spent in whisky and gambling. Hughes is now in jail here awaiting trial at the next term of the Circuit Court, when he will, no doubt, be returned to his old quarters at Frankfort, where he served a term of four years for murdering a negro. Since his return home he has been a worthless, drunken fellow, causing his family great trouble and anxiety, and foreshadowing the end which did not come so soon as predicted. His bail was fixed by Judge Brown at $450 for both cases, but Mr. Brown said he would not take a pretty small sum, we should say, considering the nature of the offenses and the punishment.

HUSTONVILLE don't take much stock in the Cicerio of the Mountains. Only two individuals could be found there to support him.

RAIN.—After a most damaging drought, the longed-for rain came on Wednesday, and the farmers and gardeners send up a fervent "Praise the Lord!" for it.

IT is reported here that Joe Dillon is to succeed Mr. Edmiston as postmaster at Crab Orchard. The latter's friends, however, hope that it is without foundation.

JUDGE PHILIPS is the first to have Irish potatoes of his own raising. He had them yesterday, but acted quite selfish about it. LATER.—Mr. John W. Wallace says he has had both potatoes and beans.

IN last issue of this paper we advised our readers to purchase for themselves or their sons from what we consider the most enterprising and reliable clothing firm of the country, J. Winter & Co., corner of Third and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., but we failed to add the remark that they would save more than the cost of the trip in doing this.

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.—Monday morning the boiler of Ross' saw-mill engine, situated near the Casey county line, exploded, killing Wm. Reed and John Reed and probably mortally wounding Sam Reed, all brothers. The explosion is said to have been caused by overworking the engine, which was built for a thrasher, and much too weak to do the work required of it.

INFANT FOUND.—A full developed male child was found by Charles Yates in the old Christian Church lot yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. He says it was alive when he first saw it, but when "Squire Carson" returned with him to the spot there were no signs of life. An inquest was held and Dr. Broadbent called to examine the body. He could discover no evidence of violence. It weighed about eleven pounds, and was pronounced a mulatto. No clue as yet to its maternity.

NEW TESTAMENTS.—Mr. R. Carson, agent for the Revised New Testament, sold 233 in the several towns he visited. He was delivering them yesterday to his patrons here. The thing don't look a bit like the old edition, for besides the numerous changes, it is neither divided into chapters nor verses. There are several alterations in the Lord's prayer, and a whole of the last sentence is cut off. You have to have saying it for 50 years must now conform to the new translation, as the old one will no longer be answered.

GOOD.—Mr. F. J. Campbell writes us from Louisville that he has secured a promise from General Passenger Agent, C. P. Atmore, for a connection at Danville Junction with the South-bound passenger trains on the C. & N. R., and agreed with him on a low round-trip rate from this section to Rockcastle Springs, where passengers leaving here at 1 P. M. will arrive for supper. If Mr. Atmore fulfills his promise, which of course he will, the connection will be of great advantage to both the visitor and the proprietors of the Springs, besides giving us a direct mail connection with points South, a right which has been denied us for more than a year. Hurrah for Campbell and his Springs!

SUPPER.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church met according to appointment and arranged for their supper, to be given on the night of the Commencement, June 9th. The price of admission was fixed at fifty cents, which entitles the person admitted to partake of the best things to his heart's content, lemonade and fruits alone being extra. This is a very small price—rather too small to make money on—and everybody can afford to enjoy themselves and contribute some to a good cause at the same time. A committee of young ladies to solicit contributions to the supper was appointed, consisting of Misses Patti Burnsides, Panthea McKinney, Mattie Paxton, Florence Trueheart and Susie Helm.

DEATHS.

At the residence of Z. T. Cook, Reedville, Rockcastle county, Ky., Catherine C. West, in the 75th year of her age. Her son, J. G. West, arrived from Denison, Texas, on Tuesday after the remains had been laid to rest. All her friends mourn her departure.

MRS. Z. T. C.—HAYS—Mr. John M. Reid received a telegram Monday from New Orleans announcing the death of Mr. Hugh M. Hays, a relative of his family. Mr. Hays spent the summer here last year, and although 70 years of age showed no sign that his end was so near.

RELIGIOUS.

The Camp Meeting at Danville Junction will commence August 2d.

There will be no preaching at any of the churches here next Sunday.

The Baptist Sunday School will during the Summer months, begin at 9 o'clock, and preaching at 10:30.

Members of the Southern Presbyterian Church protested to the Assembly at Staunton against its action in sending fraternal greeting to the Northern Church.

The Bourbon has heard that every person that Mr. Barnes has announced died. We hope Mr. Keller will take no offense when we tell him he has heard a lie.

Rev. Walter Lackey, colored, writes us from Somerset that he held a meeting there of nine days, assisted by the Rev. Shearer, of Lancaster, in which he had 22 additions to the church.

The Southern Presbyterian General Assembly, which was in session at Staunton, Va., has adjourned to meet again next year at Atlanta, Ga.

The Northern Assembly will meet in Springfield, Ill.

The cupola of the Presbyterian Church is about completed, and the change in the appearance of the building for the better is decidedly marked. It now rivals in beauty the Christian Church across the way.

Mr. J. B. Read writes us to announce that Rev. Mr. Triplett will preach at the Presbyterian Church, Hustonville, next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Rev. I. S. McElroy will preach at same church at 4 P. M.

During the last year the Baptists increased 163,624; the Methodists, 52,629; the Lutherans, 10,223; the Episcopalians, 29,846; the Presbyterians, 16,438. The Baptist gain, therefore, was nearly double that of the other four denominations combined. The Methodist North and South, however, outnumber the Baptists.—[E.]

Ed. J. G. Livingston writes that he preached at Boone's School-house last Sunday, and at the conclusion of his sermon eight persons came forward, confessed the Lord, and were baptized the same day.

He says the people of the vicinity are hungering and thirsting for the gospel, and suggests that there be preaching at the place at least once a month.

"PRAISE THE LORD."

MANCHESTER, June 1st, 1881.

THE LORDS work goes triumphantly on. Praise His dear name forever; 118 confessions to last night—83 days since the beginning of the meeting. Fine congregations day and night. Yesterday's harvest was 24—9 in the afternoon and 15 at night. Monday's was 20; Sunday's 53. We never had a more respectful hearing, nor less prejudice to encounter. PRAISE THE LORD. We like the Clay county folks "ever so much." They are as unselfish, we can't help that. You will find as "refined" people here as in Boyle or Lincoln, though, of course, the Boyle of the population are plain and "home-spun."

We expect to remain here until to-morrow week—June 9th, and as the journey to Hyden, in Leslie county, is a little too far for one day, will break it in two and preach at a half-way point Thursday afternoon. Friday night, following, we begin at Hyden, "if the LORD will."

A word about the Camp Meeting, to begin August 6th, in Pike county at the "Mouth of Elkhorn." Some in the "blue-grass" have expressed a wish to attend it, if at all practicable. Let me just say for the benefit of such, that it is quite an easily accomplished journey by any of the following routes, if one is not afraid of "roughing it" a little:

1. From the terminus of the Mt. Sterling Coal Road via Hazel Green (Wolf); Jackson (Breathitt); Hazard (Perry); and Whitesburg (Letcher). Five days' journey, averaging about 30 miles.

2. From the same point of departure, via Hazel Green (Wolf); Salsyville (Maggoffin); Prestonsburg (Floyd); Pikevton (Pike). Also a five days' journey same average.

3. From the terminus of the Knoxville extension, L. & N. R., via Harrodsburg (Knox); Pineville (Bell); Mt. Pleasant (Harlan); and Whitesburg (Letcher); 5 days, averaging 35 miles or more.

4. Same R. R. terminus, via Manchester (Clay); Hyden (Leslie); Hazard (Perry); Whitesburg (Letcher). Same number of days and 35 miles average.

These for persons who take a wagon and either go in it, or what is better, load a wagon with all things necessary for a month's camp life, and themselves take it on horseback. But the best route of all, for those who can afford it, is to go by rail or river steamer up the Ohio River to Catlettsburg, at the mouth of the Big Sandy, and then take the Chattahoochee Railway to Peach Orchard, where horses and conveyances may be obtained to transport them in three days to the camp ground.

In any case, let those who go over on the safe side, take everything along with them, expecting to find neither food nor lodging at the camp. If tents should be obtained before August 6th, it will be advertised in due time, or any other facilities that may lighten the trouble in making the journey or in remaining at the meeting. By the LORDS grace there will be "plenty of supper" furnished on the ground. Bring everything else along. And we will be "ever so" glad to see dear friends who may come so far to hear the dear, old familiar "goodness." Ever in Jesus, GEO. O. BARNES.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Dr. T. B. Montgomery bought of J. M. Hall 25 heifers, averaging 500 pounds, at 2 1/2 cents.

Unwashed Kentucky wool is quoted at 25 to 30 cents, and tub-washed at 30 to 40 cents, in Boston.

Wool holds its own at 25c. in this market. A very large amount has been handled by our merchants.

A Fayette county man sold 41 miles to Col. Baldwin, of Mayville, to be delivered in August, at $150 per head.

S. H. Bruce shipped from Mercer county last week a car-load of milk cows, with calves, for which he paid $50 to $50.

Jacob Hostetter, of Fayette county sold 60 head of fat cattle to Fort, Sadler & Co., of Cincinnati, at six cents per pound, August and September delivery.

Gath says that a leading manufacturer told him to look out for great failures among those who handle wool largely, as the factories of the country are overstocked with it, and they cannot sell.

John M. Hall bought of Craig Lynn 23 heifers, to be delivered in September and to weigh 900 pounds, at 3 1/2 cents. He also bought of Wm. Gooch 19 steers, for August delivery, at 4 cents, and six heifers at 3 cents.

Lorillard's Iroquois won the Derby stakes at London, England, Wednesday, being the first American horse to even gain a place in this event. Time, 2:20. It is said that Lorillard won a round million on his plucky little horse.

CINCINNATI.—Good demand for feeding steers and shippers, the former bringing from $1.50 to $5.75 and the latter $5.45 to $5.75; common to medium, $2.50 to $4.50. Hogs are dull at $4.50 to $6.25. Sheep are steady at 2 1/2 to 5, with a few unshorn at 5 1/2; lambs, common to extra, 5 to 7 1/2 cents.

S. H. Bruce has sold to Israel Brown 80 head of top cattle, for 1st July delivery, at 5 1/2c. He bought a lot of blooded calves, for September delivery, at 25c and 35c. He sold to F. G. Harris the Sandidge cattle, 30 head, at 5 1/2c.—[Danville Advocate.]

In Madison county, A. M. White sold to J. W. Embury 20 home-raised three-year-old hogs, weight 1,200 pounds, at 5 cents per pound.—[Jim Tom Bush sold last week to H. Hackett, of Covington, for New York parties, 41 head of fat cattle to be delivered October 20th, at 6 cents per pound.—[Winchester Sun.]

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Milledgeville.—Hot dry and dusty has become a stereotyped expression in this vicinity.

No difference what kind of produce that Rev. Mr. Triplett will preach at the Presbyterian Church, Hustonville, next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Rev. I. S. McElroy will preach at same church at 4 P. M.

During the last year the Baptists increased 163,624; the Methodists, 52,629; the Lutherans, 10,223; the Episcopalians, 29,846; the Presbyterians, 16,438. The Baptist gain, therefore, was nearly double that of the other four denominations combined. The Methodist North and South, however, outnumber the Baptists.—[E.]

Ed. J. G. Livingston writes that he preached at Boone's School-house last Sunday, and at the conclusion of his sermon eight persons came forward, confessed the Lord, and were baptized the same day.

In lieu of a "gin mill" our town can boast of a soda water fountain, and with "ice cream," "strawberry short cake" and "iced tea" in the distant future, "won't we apple pie?"

Scarcely a "corporal's guard" turned out from here and voted in the primary last Saturday. Out of two bad eggs we knew not how to distinguish the better, so we let both severely alone.

Rev. J. S. Sims, of Stanford, gave us quite an instructive and practical sermon at 3:30 P. M., Sunday, from John XV, 1:2. He left no appointment, but promises to come again as soon as circumstances permit.

We take pride in saying that with the banishment of whisky from our town, quietness reigns supreme, business looks up, outsiders come and go without fear of molestation and the bumper gives us a wide berth, so mote it be—now, henceforth and forever.

Mr. Wm. Roberts near town is now engaged in building a model for an improved sorghum mill, which he intends sending to the Patent Office. He thinks he has struck a "bonanza" if it only works as he thinks it will. Success to him, for we were born with a sweet tooth.

Emulsion's Mill.—R. S. White has a cow that gives six gallons of milk every day.

Mr. Wm. Hubbs had a calf to die with hydrophobia a few days ago.

Miss Clark Engleman is having her cottage here treated to a new coat of paint.

Marble playing and pitching quoits is the chief amusement of the young men of Dalton.

D. N. Prewitt and J. C. Gentry shipped a car-load of cattle and hogs to Cincinnati Monday night.

Capt. S. St. John, of the Adams Express Company, was at Dalton this week, looking after the interest of the company.

Rev. Robert Caldwell will preach at Bright's School-house next Tuesday night, and will probably protract the meeting during the week.

Billy Sprinkle, a good-looking young white man that is employed by Mr. J. Harlan, is trying to introduce negro equality in this vicinity. Last Sunday he was seen promenading around with Miss Mahala Alcorn, a soiled dove of the dark hue.

It has been whispered around that a drinking saloon will be opened at Dalton, but we are in hopes that there is no one in that vicinity that is so hard up for money or so much in need of principle as to engage in business of that kind. The citizens of Dalton are noted for their morality, and will not suffer it.

Mr. Robert Leak says he has a hen that has been dropping around for some time, as though she had the cholera, but upon examination he found that she had swallowed an eight-penny nail, and it was worked through and is sticking out of her abdomen about an inch. He says that he tried to pull the nail out, but it is as firm as if it was sticking through a plank.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Two of our village schools will close this week.

The election passed off quietly, with the exception of one "knock-down."

Will K. Buchanan now answers to the dignified title of "Father." It's a ten-pound boy, and is called Willie Walter.

CONDENSED TIME

COLUMBIA & NASHVILLE RAILROAD LINE. TRAINS GOING NORTH. | January 9, 1881. | DailyEx. Sun. | |--------------------|-------------------| | Richmond..... | 5 30 a m | | Lawrenceville..... | 11 30 " |

.....	19 45	72
.....	11 58	72
.....	12 45	72
.....	1 18	72
.....	1 50	72
.....	2 13	72
.....	3 05	72
.....	4 05	72
.....	4 45	72
.....	6 05	72
.....	6 29	72

TRAINS GOING SOUTH.
January 3, 1881.	Daily Ex. S. on.
Unionville.....	8 25 a m
Stanford.....	1 49 p m
Trab Orchard.....	3 51 "
Livingston.....	3 55 "
Manchester.....	2 55 "
Richmond.....	4 55 "

PULLMAN PALACE CARS.
Memphis, Little Rock, Mobile, Montgomery and New Orleans.

---

EMIGRANTS, TAKE NOTICE
This route is over

SW Miles Shortest to Texas, much quicker and rates lower than by any other route. It is also the
SWICKEST, CHEAPEST AND BEST
route to all points in Missouri, Kansas, Illinois,
Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Arkansas.
Only one change to Chicago, St. Louis and East.
For information about Tickets to the South, Kansas,
Colorado, and Emigrant Rates to Florida, ask

CINCINNATI SOUTHERN R.R.

TIME TABLE.
EFFECT MARCH 8th, 1880
TRAINS NORTH-BOUND.
STATIONS.	No. 2	No. 4
	Mail	Mail
	Express.	Accom.

Chattanooga 6	4 20	atu
Boyce	4 32	**
Spring City	6 25	**
Rockwood (Breakfast)	7 15	**
Chitwood	10 08	**
Cumbeband	10 44	**
Poinc. Burnside	11 16	**
Someret	12 10	pin
Dungan* (Dinner)	12 40	**
McKinney	1 33	**
Danville Junction S.	1 54	 25 at
Danville	2 04	 35 at

Harrodsburg Junction 4.....	2 18		5 50
High Bridge 3.....	2 32		6 06
Nicholasville.....	2 52		6 31
Lexington 2.....	3 16		7 05
Georgetown.....	3 43		7 32
Williamstown.....	4 51		8 45
Walton.....	5 32		9 31
Cincinnati 1.....	6 20		10 20

TRAINS SOUTH-BOUND.

	No. 1	No. 2
Harrodsburg Junction 4.....	2 18	**
High Bridge 3.....	2 32	**
Nicholasville.....	2 52	**
Lexington 2.....	3 16	**
Georgetown.....	3 43	**
Williamstown.....	4 51	**
Walton.....	5 32	**
Cincinnati 1.....	6 20	**

STATIONS.	Mail Express.	Mail Accounts.
Cincinnati 1.....	8 40 am	4 00 pm
Walton .....	9 31 "	4 56 "
Williamstown .....	10 12 "	5 39 "
Georgetown .....	11 22 "	6 25 "
Lexington 2 .....	11 47 "	7 15 "
Nicholasville .....	12 12 pm	7 47 "
High Bridge 3 .....	12 32 "	8 18 "
Harrodsburg Junction 4 .....	12 47 "	8 32 "
Danville .....	1 02 "	8 48 "

Danville Junction 5.....	1 12	50	00
McKinney.....	1	33
Dunga <sup>2</sup> (Dinner).....	2	45
Somerset.....	3	00
Point Burnside.....	3	17
Cumberland.....	4	17
Chitwood.....	4	51
Rockwood <sup>2</sup> (Supper).....	8	05
Spring City.....	8	40
Boyer.....	10	34
Chattanooga 6.....	10	45

(1) Connects with all diverging lines for the North, East and West. (2) Connects with L. C. and C. & K. R. R.'s. (3) Kentucky River Bridge connects with S. W. R. R. of Ky. for Harrodsburg. (4) Connects with all diverging lines for all trains in the South, South-east and South-west. Trains 1 and 2 take dinner at Dungan, and train 3 takes supper at Rockwood, and train 2 Breakfast at Rockwood. Tickets—North, South, East and West sale at principal Stations on line.

E. P. WILSON

L. WOODWARD,                      Genl. Ticket Agent
Superintendent.

MAY 22, 1881.

ESCAPEE & QUIN P. P.

WESTWARD.	No. 1	No. 3
	MAIL	FRESS
Richmond	8 00 a m	10 00 p m
Gordonsville	11 00 a m	1 20 a m

Charlottesville	11 50 a m	2 25 a m
Lynchburg Junction	11 55 a m	2 25 a m
Lynchburg	2 25 p m	4 39 a m
Waynesboro	1 25 p m	4 19 a m
Staunton	2 50 p m	4 40 a m
Washington's	5 50 p m	7 39 a m
White Sulphur	6 50 p m	8 39 a m
Hinton	10 00 p m	11 30 a m
Huntington	5 05 a m	6 00 p m
F., L. & R. R.
Huntington	5 10 a m	6 05 p m
Ashtab	5 45 a m	6 50 p m
R. S. & P. P. S'rs.

Huntington	.....	6 30 p m
Portsmouth	.....	10 30 p m
Maysville	.....	1 00 a m
Cincinnati	.....	6 00 a m

1 MAIL—Runs daily except Sunday from Richmond to Huntington; daily, Williams'ons to Huntington; connects at Lynchburg Junction for Newburg, Danville and Bristol; at Waynesboro for Cave, and at Ashland, Ky., with all rail lines to Cincinnati and the West.

3 EXPRESS—Runs daily from Richmond to ington; connects at Lynchburg Junction for Lynchburg and Washington; at Huntington with cars for Cincinnati and the West.

5 ACCOM—Leaves Richmond daily except Sundays at 2:30 p m, and arrives at Charlottesville
at 10 a m.
21 MIXED—Leaves Charlottesville daily extending at 4:40 p m, and arrives at Staunton at 10 p m.
27 PASSENGER—Leaves Cannonal at 5:30 a m, except Sunday and arrives Huntington
at 9 a m.
J. E. H. S. R. R. Trains run daily.

EASTWARD.	No 2	No. 4 Ex.
	MAIL	PRESS
B. S. & P. F. S't's.	"
Cincinnati.....		4 00 p m
Maysville.....		10 30 p m
Portsmouth.....		4 00 a m

Huntington	10 30 a m
C. & O. R. R.
Ashland	6 00 p m
Huntington	6 40 p m
C. & O. R. R.
Huntington	6 45 p m
Hinton	3 05 a m
White Sulph. Sp.	4 45 a m
Williamson's L.	7 25 a m
Staunton	10 10 a m
Waynesboro	10 45 a m
Lynchburg	12 56 a m
Lynchburg Junction	11 55 a m

Charlottesville	12 10	p.m.	3 10	a.m.
Yorktownville	1 30	p.m.	4 00	a.m.
Richmond	5 00	p.m.	7 00	a.m.

S. & P. P. Steamer leaves Cincinnati daily.
A. & R. S. R. R. Trains run daily.
Mail-Runs daily except Saturday from Washington to Richmond; daily, Huntington to Williams; M. & C. and Selota Valley R. R., from Annapolis and the West connect at Ashland with Train No. 7; connects at Waynesboro for the train at Lynchburg Junction for Lynchburg and Express—Runs daily from Huntington to Bond, connects at Lynchburg Junction to Lexington and the North, and Lynchburg and the South.

Accom—Leaves Charlottesville daily except p.m. at 4:45 a. m., and arrives Richmond 9 a. m.

2 Mixed—Leaves Staunton daily, except Sunday, at 6:30 a. m., and arrives Charlottesville 9:30 a. m.

28—Leaves Huntington at 9:00 p. m. daily, and arrives Cannelton at 7:30 p. m.

Fares, tickets, baggage checks, apply to any of the following:

O. O. R. R.: or Depot or Ticket Office.

E. F. KELLEY, G. W. Agard,
173 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio.
CONWAY K. HOWARD, G. P. & T. A.
J. S. DUNN, Eng'r & Supt.

a week. $12 a day at home easily made. Costly outfit free. Addr. TRUE & Co. Augusta, Maine

a week in your own town. Terms and outfit
free. Addr. H. HALLETT & Co. Portland, Maine

$20 per day at home. Samples worth $5 free
Addr. J. STANBRO

U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1964 O - 348-100